Projects

CP Helper (Full Stack) | Competitive Programming Toolkit

- Built a full-stack MERN application to assist competitive programmers with real-time code execution, profile aggregation, and automated bug detection.
- Developed a Dockerized C++ code execution microservice using GCC, supporting compilation, execution with timeout handling (TLE/RE detection), and sandboxed runtime isolation.
- Implemented a differential testing engine to automatically find bugs by generating randomized test cases and comparing outputs between correct (oracle) and candidate solutions.
- Integrated APIs from Codeforces, LeetCode (GraphQL), and CodeChef (web scraping with Cheerio) to aggregate user profiles and statistics in a unified dashboard.

PICT Lost and Found (Backend) | Admin-Controlled MERN Backend

- Implemented automatic subscription model using Nodemailer to notify users when items matching their subscribed categories are reported.
- Built a secure Node.js backend for managing lost and found items within the campus, supporting user and admin workflows.
- Implemented JWT-based authentication, role-based access, and item management APIs using Express and MongoDB.
- Integrated Multer for image uploads and enabled static file serving; ensured clean admin control over item verification.
